Do You Have Health Care Concerns?

Your Voice Should Be Heard

Your Needs and Concerns are Important!

Some of California's best Health Care Advocates will be at the next CV-RAPS program to educate the public about their services and to empower self advocacy for better health care. Become an informed medical consumer and a valuable partner with your health provider for better care. Holly Anne Fechner, Speech Pathologist at Rehab without Walls, will be the Moderator of this informative forum. Panelists include:

- Office of Patient Advocacy & Disability Resource Agency for Independent Living (DRAIL), Kevin Delcamo, HMO Enrollee Rights, Responsibilities & Resources
- California Health Advocates, Marta E. Erismann, Community Outreach Coordinator
Medicare Fraud and Abuse
- Protection and Advocacy Leilani Pfeifer, Multi-Cultural Affairs Coordinator
Todd Higgins, Traumatic Brain Injury
Terry Lindsay, Medi-Cal, SSI, In-Home Supportive Services and Foster Care
- SJ County Behavioral Services Cheryl Torres, Health Advocate

There will be resource materials for future reference to help with self advocacy. Know what services are available and where to go for more information and assistance. CV-RAPS is FREE with an RSVP at 209-234-2802.
